

Edgar Davies

Twemlow Lane, Cranage, Holmes Chapel

Returned

Officers and men of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers

His Story

Edgar was born in 1897 in Cranage and aged 14 was living in Twemlow Lane in 1911 with his grandparents George and Mary Morris. George Morris was a joiner from Whitchurch in Shropshire.

Before the war Edgar was a Post Office telegram boy.

His War Record

There is little information available about Edgar's war record.

He joined the Royal Welsh Fusiliers and was reported in hospital wounded in November 1916.

His name is recorded on the Church Roll of Honour.